
The progress of the criminal investigation on the commission of a crime against a juvenile in Novosibirsk Oblast is a subject to control of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia

The Investigating Authorities of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Novosibirsk Oblast are investigating a criminal case against a man who is accused of committing a crime against the sexual integrity of a juvenile - the son of his cohabitant. The criminal investigation is launched on the fact of the negligence of officials of the prevention system is also continues.

An appeal by activists about the need to remove the child from the family has been published on the Internet. As it was stated in the publication, the mother could have known about the crimes committed against her son, however, at the moment the fate of the child has not been decided, the child continues to live with his mother in inadequate conditions.

Mr. Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin, Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia, instructed Mr. V.B. Zaripov, Acting Head of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the Novosibirsk Oblast, to raise the issue of the immediate removal of the child from the family in order to protect the rights of the juvenile.

The progress of the criminal investigations is the subject to control of the Head of the Department and the Main Directorate. The Chairman of the ICR requested a detailed report on the investigations and the established circumstances.
