The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to inspect the information about the violation of the rights of residents of one of the houses in Leningrad Oblast

Social media reported on the communal problems of residents of an apartment building located in the Maloye Karlino village, Leningrad Oblast. In September, a major overhaul began in the building, the workers opened the roof, after which they stopped doing any work. Due to the beginning of the rains, the apartments were constantly flooded. It was also reported about the inaction of the Administration of the settlement.

Mr. Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed Mr. D.Yu. Mityaev, Acting Head of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Leningrad Oblast, to organize a procedural inspection and to report on the detected circumstances.
