
The Investigative Committee of Russia launched a criminal investigation on the mass execution of captured Russian Servicemen by representatives of Ukraine

Today, a video has been widely circulated in various Telegram channels, where the representatives of the Ukrainian Armed Formations shoot at least 11 unarmed Russian servicemen who were captured by them on the territory of the Lugansk People's Republic.

On this fact, the Military Investigating Authorities of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation launched a criminal investigation against the representatives of the Armed Formations of Ukraine in accordance with paragraphs. "a", "b" and "g" Part 2, Article 105 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation (murder of two or more persons committed by a group of persons in connection with their official activities), and Part 1 of Article 356 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation (ill treatment of prisoners of war, use of banned means and methods of warfare).

At the moment, Military Investigators of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation are taking measures to identify the persons who recorded the brutal video. Other investigative and operational measures are being carried out in full to establish all the circumstances of the crime.
