
The Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee instructs to report on the progress of the procedural inspection related to a fire broke out at the apartment building in Sakhalin Oblast

On November 19, 2022, a fire broke out in a two-story wooden apartment building in the Tymovskoye village, Sakhalin Oblast. People were evacuated. There are no casualties.

On the fact of a fire in the apartment building, the Investigating Authorities of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Sakhalin Oblast organized a procedural inspection.

Mr. A.I. Bastrykin, Head of the Investigative Committee of Russia, instructed Mr. B.B. Bazarov, Head of the Investigative Directorate of the Russian Investigative Committee for Sakhalin Oblast, to report on the results of the procedural inspection.

19 November 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1742069>