
The Head of the Department will be presented with a report on the detected circumstances within the verification activities on the negligence of Officials in Chelyabinsk Oblast

On one of the TV Channels there was a story, which reported that residents of an apartment building have not been able to use the elevator for six months due to its malfunction in Chelyabinsk Oblast. At the same time, claims are made against the previous Management Company, which did not take appropriate measures to repair or replace the elevator within the reasonable time frame. On this fact, the Investigating Authorities of the Investigative Committee of Russia in Chelyabinsk Oblast are conducting a procedural inspection, all the circumstances are being detected.

Mr. Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed Mr. P.G. Reshetnikov, Head of the Investigative Directorate of the IC of Russia for Chelyabinsk Oblast, to report on the progress of the procedural inspection and the detected circumstances.
