
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to report on the progress of the inspection on the fire occurred in a trawler in the Sea of Okhotsk

On November 27, 2022, a fire broke out in the large freezing trawler "Sunfish" in the Sea of Okhotsk, 300 km away from the village in Ust-Khairuzovo, Kamchatka Krai. There are no casualties as a result of the incident, the fire on the ship was localized. On this fact, the Eastern Interregional ID for transport of the Investigative Committee of Russia organized a procedural inspection.

Mr. A.I. Bastrykin, Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia, instructed Mr. A.A. Alexandrov, Head of the Eastern Interregional ID for Transport, to report on the progress of the inspection and the circumstances of the incident.

28 November 2022

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1744570>