
The line of further criminal investigation on the murder of a local resident in the Republic of Dagestan is a subject to control of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia

A publication has been posted on one of the social media, which reports that in the Republic of Dagestan, relatives of a deceased local resident criticize the line of the criminal investigation over his murder and the relatives have some fears that persons who, in their opinion, are involved in the commission of the crime, may avoid criminal liability.

Must be recalled, that on November 10, 2022, in one of the settlements of the Kayakent district, an 18-year-old local resident stabbed a 19-year-old boy many times. He was motivated by sudden enmity. On this fact, the Investigating Authorities of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the Republic of Dagestan, launched a criminal case, the Attacker was charged with a crime prescribed in Part 1, Article 105 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation (murder). In addition, four more local residents were present at the scene of the fight, and their actions will also properly legally assessed within the criminal investigation.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Belyaev D.V., Head of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the Republic of Dagestan, to submit a report on the set of investigative actions carried out. The line of the further investigation is a subject to control in the Main Investigative Directorate of the Department.
