The Head of the Department instructs to submit a report on the progress and results of the criminal investigation on the death of a Police Officer in Stavropol Krai

A socio-political program aired a plot about the death of a 25-year-old Moscow Police Patrol Officer from injuries sustained during the use of violence against him in the Staroizobilnaya village, Stavropol Krai. The circumstances of crime were not related to the performance of his official duties. The Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Stavropol Krai are conducting the criminal investigation of all the facts now.

Relatives of the victim express their dissatisfaction with the qualification of the actions of the accused, as well as the measure of restraint imposed on him.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Ivanov I.N., Head of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Stavropol Krai, to submit a
