
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to report on the complaints coming from residents of the house in Krasnodar

The media reported that the owners of apartments in a building located in Krasnodar could be evicted without providing alternative housing, despite the existing resettlement program.

The Head of the Department instructed Mr. K.E. Korpusov, Acting Deputy Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation - Head of the Main Military Investigative Directorate, to submit a report on the situation.
