
A cadet class of the Investigative Committee of Russia is established in the Lugansk People's Republic

In accordance with the instructions of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee, the Head of the Directorate for Educational Work of the Investigative Committee of Russia, Hero of Russia Sergey Vasilyevich Petrov, and Officers of the Department visited the Lugansk People's Republic.

A decision was made to establish a specialized cadet class of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation in the Lugansk People's Republic within the implementation of the concept of specialized Cadet Education of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation. The corresponding Agreement was signed between the Investigative Committee of Russia and the State Institution of the Lugansk People's Republic "Lugansk Educational and Educational Unit named after Pilot-Cosmonaut G.T. Beregovoy, which will serve as the basis for this class. Officers of the Department handed over the flags of the Russian Federation and the Investigative Committee of Russia to the educational institution. Mr. S.V. Petrov discussed with the Minister of Education of the LPR, Mr. P.A. Ishkov issues of class organization and development of Cadet Education in the Republic.

Officers of the Department handed over books, purchased by the Investigative Committee of Russia, to the library of the Educational Institution and to other children living in Lugansk. Each Cadet received a book about the history of Russia from the Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee.

Along with this, Mr. S.V. Petrov visited the Republican Children's Clinical Hospital in the LPR within a working trip. The Investigative Committee has patronized this medical institution for almost two years, regularly providing humanitarian assistance. In cooperation with the Research Institute of Emergency Children's Surgery and Trauma (Doctor Roshal's Clinic), wounded children are being evacuated who require emergency care in the field of surgery and traumatology.

Mr. S.V. Petrov presented the Departmental Medals of the Russian Investigative Committee "For Assistance" to Ms. L.M. Beletskaya, Chief Doctor of the Lugansk Republican Children's Clinical Hospital, and doctors of a medical institution.

Children undergoing treatment in this medical institution were given toys and New Year's sweet gifts on behalf of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee.
