
A report on the investigative actions carried out on the criminal case of the death of a girl in Novosibirsk Oblast will be submitted to the Chairman of the Investigative Committee

The media reported that a mother of many children from Novosibirsk Oblast believes that improper medical care led her 12-year-old daughter to the death because the child's health condition worsened after vaccination, and later she died. The woman also expressed dissatisfaction with the examinations carried out during the investigation. The Investigating Authorities of the Investigative Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Novosibirsk Oblast continue to investigate the criminal case on the offense of a crime prescribed in Part 2, Article 109 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation (inflicting death by negligence).

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed Mr. Zaripov V.B., Acting Head of the Investigative Directorate of the ICR for Novosibirsk Oblast, to submit a report on the progress of the criminal investigation and the detected circumstances.
