
A criminal case has been initiated in connection with a terrorist act in the Krasnodar region

The Main Investigation Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia opened a criminal case under Article 205 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation (terrorist act) in connection with an attack by Ukrainian armed formations on the city of Primorsko-Akhtarsk in the Krasnodar Territory. As a result of these criminal actions, several people were injured, including two children. Later, a 6-year-old girl died in a medical facility from her injuries.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia has instructed that exhaustive measures be taken to identify those among the Ukrainian Armed Forces who gave and carried out criminal orders to attack civilian targets. Their actions will be given a criminal legal assessment.

S. Petrenko, Official Representative of the Investigative Committee of Russia.
