

---

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia ordered to open a criminal case in connection with injuries to minors as a result of a traffic accident involving a bus in the Kaliningrad region

The media reported that at least 7 children were injured in a traffic accident near Zelenogradsk in the Kaliningrad region as a result of a collision between a Kia car and a bus carrying 10 minors. The injured received bruises and abrasions, and they received medical assistance.

The head of the Committee instructed the acting head of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the Kaliningrad region E.N. Kozyretsky to launch a criminal case and report on the established circumstances.

15 July 2024

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1900137>

