
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia ordered an investigation into the statements of a Ukrainian nationalist

The mass media and social media have published information, according to which Ukrainian nationalist Nazar Prikhodko publicly calls for the killing of Russian citizens.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed the Main Investigation Department of the Russian Investigative Committee to organize a procedural check into this fact, which will also include a legal assessment of the published statements.
