
Statement of the Investigative Committee of non-compliance information on the criminal case about a plane crash in 2008, a Boeing 737 505 "near Perm

The information published in the media, as well as statements by some members of the public and lawyers to dismiss the criminal case about a plane crash in 2008, a Boeing 737 505 "near Perm untrue. The term of the criminal investigation extended until February 14, 2011. In cancers of the criminal case investigation to verify the actions of officials of Aeroflot-Nord ", who allowed Rodion Medvedev to control the aircraft. In addition, I will be analyzed during the investigation revealed deficiencies in the organization of pre-flight training and flight safety. Course of a criminal investigation is under special control of the leadership of the Investigative Committee.

01 October 2010

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/509311>