
Investigators conduct an additional inspection of the scene at the Polish President plane crash site near Smolensk

The investigators of the Investigative Committee in the investigation into the Polish president's plane crash near Smolensk have carried out an additional inspection of the scene, which was attended by the Deputy Chief Military Prosecutor of Poland, the police and embassy officials of the Republic of Poland.

In the course of the investigative action involving the Office of Internal Affairs and Ministry of Emergency Situations of Russia in the Smolensk region, no fragments of human bodies, airplane parts, personal belongings of the victims or other items relevant to the case have been found.

23 May 2010

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/509325>