
Check into death of Deputy Commander of Russian interior forces in car accident in Voronezh region

Military Investigation Department of the SK Investigative Committee for Voronezh garrison has launched a check into the death of Deputy Commander of the North Caucasus Regional Headquarters of the Interior Forces of the Russian Interior Ministry Major-General Mikhail Voznesensky.

It was preliminary found out from the files passed by the investigative bodies of the RF Investigative Committee for Voronezh region that the Major-General Voznesensky was driving his own car on the way back from vacation. At night, some 230 km away from Voronezh, the major-general's car crashed into another automobile. The accident resulted in unsustainable injuries. The circumstances are being specified.

The procedural decision will be taken upon the results of the check.

02 May 2012

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/509485>