
Meeting of Public Council under Investigative Committee took place

A meeting of Public Council under the Russia's Investigative Committee took place to discuss a number of urgent questions on activity of the Investigative Committee and its interaction with non-governmental organizations.

During discussion the members of the Public Council expressed support for actions by the Investigative Committee directed to increase public order and suppression of unlawful actions against representatives of the authorities.

03 July 2012

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/509932>