
Progress of inquest into attacks on religious leaders of Tatarstan Republic

Today the court in Kazan has considered motions filed by investigator Tatarstan Republic Investigative Committee on selection of a pre-trial restraining measure of detainment in custody of 4 suspects in murder of Valiulla Yakupov and attempted murder of Ildus Faizov committed on 19 July in Kazan.

At present, 39-year-old leader of parish Vakf, a 41-year-old resident of Vysokogorsky district of the Republic, 26-year-old citizen of Uzbekistan and a 36-year old resident of Kazan, apprehended the day before are arrested for 2 months, that is until 20 September. A 31-year-old resident of Laishevsky district of the Republic has been released as the suspicions of his involvement in the crimes were not confirmed.

Investigation is to be continued.

21 July 2012

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/510382>