
Head of International Legal Cooperation Department of Investigative Committee Mikhail Georgievich Yarov passed away

Head of International Legal Cooperation Department of Investigative Committee Lieutenant General of Justice Mikhail Georgievich Yarov, 64, died suddenly on 21 July 2012.

Mikhail Yarov was born on 24 August 1947 in town of Baranovichi of Brest district of Belorussian Soviet Republic to the family of a white-collar. After school and Krasnoyarsk polytechnic institute he served in USSR armed forces as a platoon commander. Later he was an engineer in the trust of Sibsvetmetremont in Krasnoyarsk. Since 1974 Mr Yarov was called up in state security bodies where he served for more than 30 years. After Higher School of USSR KGB in different positions he many times implemented important state tasks in foreign countries and flashpoints in Russia. For his courage and bravery Mr Yarov was awarded with state awards, honorary badges of leadership and command. Mr Yarov was the head of International Legal Cooperation Department of Investigative Committee since 2007.

He was an excellent professional, an exacting, principled and responsive leader. For his flawless service he was awarded with orders “For military merits”, “Of Honor”, “Of friendship” and many other medals.

We will remember him as honest, efficient, friendly and reliable man. His good name and deeds shall forever remain in our hearts.

Leadership of Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation

23 July 2012

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/510385>