
Alexander Bastrykin paid working visit in Tatarstan Republic

Today Chairman of Russia's Investigative Committee has arrived with working visit in Kazan. On his arrival Alexander Bastrykin held a working meeting with the President of Tatarstan Republic Rustam Minnikhanov and after that awarded Order of Courage to parents of 12-year-old Danil Sadykov who with his life had saved in May 2012 a 9-year-old boy in the town of Naberezhnye Chelny. The boy accidentally fell into a fountain basin with electrocuted water inside it. Danil Sadykov immediately rushed after him and both boys were electrocuted, but for Sadykov that was fatal.

In addition, in the building of Tatarstan Republic Investigation Directorate of the Russia's Investigative Committee the Chairman held an operation meeting where he heard the progress and results of investigation of the most scandalous cases in the proceedings of Volga Federal District Investigations Department and Regional Department as well.
