
Checking team of SK Central Office sent to Samara Region

A checking team of Central Office of the Russia's Investigative Committee Central Office has been sent to Samara Region to check the facts of wrongdoings by investigator of inter-district Investigations Department Roman Livinsky and other unlawful actions of Samara Investigations Department officials, information of which was spread by a number of media.

Besides, the team will evaluate the efficiency of work by senior officials of Samara Region Investigations Directorate of SK.

13 September 2012

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/510908>