
Razvozhayev did not appeal to investigators claiming that crimes were committed against him

Leonid Razvozhayev to whom investigators explained his right to have a defense attorney has not announced whom he wanted to see in this position. As soon as the lawyer chosen by him or his relatives appeals to the Central Investigations Directorate of the Investigative Committee, the question of allowing to participate in the criminal case will be solved.

In connection with information spread by a number of media about wrongdoings against Razvozhayev it is necessary to point out that no official complaints on tortures, kidnapping or other wrongdoings against him either during initiation of criminal proceedings or during arraignment in the Investigative Committee were received from Razvozhayev. In the process of procedural check into the announcement made by Razvozhayev near the court building on 21 October, the Investigative Committee will check all information and media publications on crimes against Razvozhayev.
