
Victims finished reading the files of a criminal case against former personnel of Dalny police station

The Republic of Tatarstan investigating bodies of the Russia's Investigative Committee have finished the procedure of familiarizing the 13 victims with the materials of a criminal case initiated against 8 former officers of Dalny police station. Depending on the role of each, the policemen are charged with crimes under article 286 (exceeding official powers) and part 4 of article 111 of the RF Criminal Code (inflicting a grave injury resulting in death of a victim).

At present the accused are starting to read the materials.

Nobody of the former policemen plead guilty. The court under the petition of the investigator ruled to put 7 of them into custody as a pre-trial restraining measure. One more is under a written undertaking not leave the place and to behave properly.

A large amount of work was done during the investigation: there were 87 expert examinations carried out, more than 200 witnesses interrogated. 17 criminal cases were filed into a single lawsuit. The criminal case includes 60 volumes.

Criminal proceedings against the ninth offender – former Chief of Dalny police station 45-year-old Ilgiz Akhmetzyanov was severed into a separate lawsuit in connection with his illness.

earlier the court had listened to a case against former district police officers of Dalny police station – Ilshat Garifullin, 25, and Ramil Nigmatzyanov, 37. The court had found them guilty of a crime under part 1 of article 286 of the RF Criminal Code (exceeding official powers) and sentenced Garifullin and Higmatzyanov to 2.5 and 2 years in prison respectively.
