Primorsky Territory in search for staff of Slavyanka company and military officials involved in scams

Pacific Fleet Military Investigations Directorate of the Russia's investigative Committee has launched a criminal case over embezzlement of money during execution of a state contract containing signs of a crime under part 4 of article 159 of the RF Criminal Code (swindling on an especially large scale).

In October 2011, the office of the state customer the Defense Ministry concluded a state contract with OAO Slavyanka (OJSC) on maintenance and current renovation of barracks and housing in military camps. According to investigators, in the period between October 2011 and September 2012 the works in military camp No 10 of unit 20982 in the Primorsky Territory were either not executed at all, or only a small part of it was executed. Knowing that, senior officials of Vladivostoksky branch of OAO Slavyanka drew up a delivery and acceptance certificate of the services, where they
