
Yekaterinburg hosts All-Russian seminar on countering extremism and terrorism

The All-Russian seminar on combating extremism and terrorism will take place in the city of Yekaterinburg from 2 to 5 June 2014.

The agenda provides for discussing anti-extremism activities in modern conditions and enhancement of efficiency of interagency cooperation, problems of law enforcement practice in revealing and investigating such crimes and operative support for investigations into acts of extremism.

On the order of the Main Organization and Inspection Department of the Russia's Investigative Committee, Ruslan Kerimovich Ibiyev, the Head of the Ural Federal District Investigations Directorate, is going to take part in the seminar.

03 June 2014

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/512980>