
In Republic of Tatarstan, initial inquiry underway into death of child in Turkey

Tatarstan investigating bodies of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation have launched an initial inquiry into the death of a child in the pool of one of the hotels in Turkey that was reported in the media.

According to preliminary data, on the afternoon of June 29, 2014, a 6-year-old boy, a resident of Almetyevsk drowned in the pool of one of the hotels in Alanya, Turkey Republic.

Currently, the necessary operations aimed at establishing all the circumstances of the incident are underway. The procedural decision will be taken upon obtaining their results.

09 July 2014

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/513010>