
Investigators of Investigative Committee working at car crash scene in New Moscow

Today at 12:55 near the village of Oznobishino of Troitsky and Novomoskovsky administrative districts an Armenian national born in 1967 was driving a Kamaz truck and did not yielded the way to a coach and collided with it.

15 people were killed at the scene of the accident - 10 women, 4 men and 1 child among them. 3 more died later at the hospital. 24 people were injured and delivered to hospitals.

At the moment investigators of the Russia's Investigative Committee and the police officers are working at the scene. In the near future it should be decided by the Moscow Main Investigations Directorate to take the criminal investigation into the accident and death of people under their proceedings.

13 July 2013

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/514712>