

Criminal investigation launched in Ingushetia against top official of local office of State Traffic Safety Inspectorate

The Main Investigations Directorate of the Russia's Investigative Committee in the North Caucasus Federal District has launched a criminal case against a senior official of the office of the State Traffic Safety Inspectorate of the Russian Interior Ministry in the Republic of Ingushetia into signs of a crime under part 1 of article 286 of the RF Penal Code (exceeding official powers) and part 1 of article 292 (forgery by an official).

According to investigators, in the period between April and July 2012, the police officer deliberately and out of mercenary interest, obviously exceeding his official powers, ordered his subordinates in inter-district registration and examination department in the local office of the State Traffic Safety Inspectorate of the Russian Interior Ministry in the Republic of Ingushetia to illegally register car of foreign make, which had not been registered at the customs. Moreover, not having right for this he signed the car passports with knowingly false information issued by the said department. As a result the cars were systematically put on registration in the said department leading to the damage on an especially massive scale to the budget of the Russian Federation.
