
Premiere of documentary series “Investigation Technologies” about activity of Investigative Committee took place today

Premiere of documentary series “Investigation Technologies” took place today on Rossiya 24 channel. The TV journalistic project will show the life of the Investigative Committee, working days of investigators, will tell about methods, equipment and areas of activity. There will be 6 episodes about activity of different divisions of the Investigative Committee. The first episode tells about work of the Main Criminalistics Office.

25 November 2013

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/515607>

