
In Moscow, criminal case against gang members accused of very serious crimes sent to court

The Moscow Main Investigation Department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation completed a criminal investigation against Sergei Balikhin, Viktor Yakubev, Marat Yusupov and Yuri Kozlov accused of a series of robberies and murders in the territory of Moscow and the Moscow region. Depending on the role of each, they are accused of committing crimes under Article 209 of the RF Criminal Code (robbery), Subsections "a, g, h" of Part 2 of Article 105 of the RF Criminal Code (murder), Part 4 of Article 162 of the RF Criminal Code (robbery), Part 3 of Article 222 of the RF Criminal Code (illegal trafficking in firearms).

According to investigators, the gang was created in 2009 by a resident of the city of Moscow Sergei Balikhin to attack citizens and seize their property. He gave a detailed confession of crimes and denounced his accomplices. During the search at the summer residence of one of the accomplices in October 2012, three grenades, two sawn-off shotguns, five pistols, including the one used in two murders, were seized. The involvement of gang members in the murder of nine people has been established. March 7, 2009, the accused committed a robbery at the apartment at the Zarevy Proyezd in Moscow, during which three people, including a minor, were brutally killed. November 26, 2010, a small shop clerk was murdered at the Linii Oktyabrskoy Zheleznoy Dorogoy Street. March 18, 2011, a pawn shop at the Bryanskaya Street in Moscow was attacked, and three its employees were killed. December 29, 2011, a jewelry store "Svadebny" at the Butyrskaya Street in Moscow was robbed, and the store manager was murdered. A pensioner was murdered on February 20, 2012 in Domodedovo, Moscow region.

Investigators have collected sufficient evidence. In connection with this, a criminal case with the approved indictment was sent to the court for consideration on the merits.
