
On eve of International Children's Day employees of Ural Transport Investigations Directorate visit and congratulate inmates of special school

On the eve of the International Children's Day employees of the Ural Transport Investigations Directorate of the Russia's Investigative Committee visited and congratulated the inmates at Chernousov special correction boarding school.

During the meeting with the children, the investigators talked about their education, organization of their leisure activities, their social adaptation. In addition, they got familiar with living conditions in the facility and relationships with the teachers and administration. During the meeting the children willingly showed their handicrafts and a nature corner.

After the meeting, there was a lesson with high school students on behavior near railways. Films and videos were demonstrated explaining rules of safe behavior near railways.

In addition, documentary "Stolen Childhood" on prevention of juvenile crimes and homelessness, prepared by the Russia's Investigative Committee, was shown.

At the end of the meeting the investigators gave the children goods. No doubt such meetings will be held in future.

22 May 2014

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/516945>