
In Mordovia on eve of Children's Day officials of Investigations Directorate congratulate inmates of children's home

Officials of the Investigations Directorate of the Russia's Investigative Committee for the Republic of Mordovia have visited patronized Ruzayevka children's home and congratulated the inmates on the end of school year and the coming International Children's Day.

Representatives of Mordovia branch of the All-Russian Volunteer Fire Society visited the facility together with the investigators. On the eve of summer holidays they told children about fire safety rules, made a quiz and gave presents to the winners. After that in the school yard the children put out a fire set in a metallic tray.

At the end of the meeting the investigators gave the children sports gear.

The employees of the Investigations Directorate have been visiting the children's home for several years, have held joint sport competitions, contests and regular lectures. The aim of such meetings is not only social assistance, but prevention of crimes among the teenagers.

Изображения

26 May 2014

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/517292>