On the eve of the International Children's Day the officials of the Moscow Region Main Investigations Directorate of the Russia's Investigative Committee together with Deputy Head Vitaly Tkachev visited the inmates of Khimki social children's asylum.

The investigators traditionally gave the children presents and Yelena Viktorovna, head of the facility, made a tour around the asylum for them. After tour there was a tea party. Like during all previous visits, the investigators delivered a lecture aimed at prevention of crimes committed by the children and about necessity to study well at school. For several years the officials of the Moscow region main Investigations Directorate have been visiting the inmates of the Khimki social asylum and congratulated them on all the holidays.
