
In Omsk officials of Investigations Directorate congratulate inmates of social rehab on International Children's Day

On 30 May 2014, on the eve of the International Children's Day, the officials of the Omsk Region Investigations Directorate of the Russia's Investigative Committee visited Harmony, a social rehabilitation center for minors.

The investigators regularly hold such meetings with the inmates of the center. Speaking with the teenagers in a complicated life situation, they seek to warn them against offences and keep them safe from the situations, when children can become victims of crimes.

On the eve of the holiday the officials again had a prevention conversation with the children, gave them presents and sweets, took part in the awarding the winners of children's drawing contest, had pleasure in seeing the children's art classroom, received handicrafts made by children as presents and supported participants of the sports competition. In their turn the center's administration thanked the investigators for being involved in the children's lives and their help.

Изображения

30 May 2014

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/517762>