
Personnel of Investigative Committee Volgograd Region Investigation Directorate take part in “The war was tomorrow” action

On the eve of the Day of Memory and Grief the personnel of the Volgograd Region Investigations Directorate of the Russia’s Investigative Committee together with other representatives of security agencies participated in “The war was tomorrow” action.

On June 21, 2014, at 11:00 PM thousands of law enforcement officers and Volgograd citizens came to the most significant height in Russia – Mamayev Kurgan to pay tribute to the memory of the soldiers, who had given their lives to save the Motherland, its future and independence.

The people present held a silence minute and laid flowers to the Eternal Flame in the Hall of War Glory to honor the memory of the Great Patriotic War soldiers, fallen in those terrible fights and died of the war time hardships in home front. Thousands of burning candles, carried by all of the participants, symbolized days and nights of battles, defeats and victories, represented continuity of generations.
