
Investigative Committee Chairman meets with Chancellor of Lomonosov Moscow State University

A working meeting has taken place between Chairman of the Russia's Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin and Chancellor of M.V. Lomonosov Moscow State University Academician V.A. Sadovnichy.

The parties discussed development of mutually beneficial cooperation. In addition to the Agreement on cooperation in the area of education the parties arranged to sign an agreement on cooperation in scientific and expert analytical activity. Additionally, the Academy of the Russia's Investigative Committee and State Audit Highest School of the Moscow State University will sign a cooperation agreement allowing unification of efforts in training specialists in the field of investigating economic and financial crimes.

Изображения

10 November 2014

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/519976>