In Bashkortostan investigators find whereabouts of two locals suspected of killing 5 in Kumertau

On the order of Bashkortostan investigating bodies of the Russia's Investigative Committee the police have found whereabouts of two residents of the town of Kumertau Konstantin Surkov, 21, and Sergey Bukayev, 23.

It was reported earlier that in the morning of 17 April 2015, after having put out a fire in a flat in Karl Marks street in Kumertau firefighters found 5 dead bodies with signs of violent death. The investigators are considering the version that the victims were killed by somebody from their nearest circle so Surkov and Bukayev are now suspects in murder case.

The suspects have been detained and in the near future will be delivered to the investigators for questioning and then be put in custody.
