
Investigative Committee Chairman to receive citizens in Bashkortostan

Chairman of the Russia's Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin will personally receive citizens in the city of Ufa at the regional investigations directorate at 32, Petropavlovskaya street, on 23 June 2015.

The citizens will be received in connection with matters related to pre-investigating checks and criminal cases investigated or that are being investigated by the Investigations Directorate for Bashkortostan.

Those wanting to get an appointment have to have an ID document and if representing interest of the third party – a document confirming such authority; an application containing the essence of an issue; documents and materials confirming validity of the claim and results of the previous review of the issues by state authorities, including law-enforcement, courts of justice or local government.

To make an appointment please call: 8 (347) 276-67-06. The time will be provided later.

Head of Media Relations V.I. Markin

01 June 2015

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/933715>