Following order of Investigative Committee Chairman team of officials from Central Office sent to Bashkiria for practical help

Following the order of Chairman of the Russia's Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin a large group of officials of the central Office has been sent to Bashkortostan Investigations Directorate. The group includes officials of main offices for criminalistics, procedure control, organizational and inspector management and internal security.

They will provide their Bashkir colleagues with practical and methodological aid in organizing the operation of the directorate. Besides, they will help to investigate serious and very serious crimes that were the reason of many complaints filed by citizens with the Chairman during the reception he held in Ufa on 23 June 2015. The progress and results of the investigations are under control of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.
