In Krasnoyarsk Territory criminal investigation launched in unsafe services killing 11 people

The Krasnoyarsk Territory investigating bodies of the Russia’s Investigative Committee have launched a criminal investigation in a crime under paragraph “b” of part 2 of article 238 of the RF Penal Code (provision of services that do not meet life and health safety standards) following a two-bus traffic accident in Balakhta District.

According to investigators, on 8 July 2015, at about 6 PM, unidentified people of OOO Avtokolonna 1967-Vostok while providing paid transportation services failed to ensure that they met life and health safety standards and let a Hyundai bus set off from the city of Kyzyl, Tuva Republic for Krasnoyarsk. On 9 July at 5 AM, for no apparent reasons the said bus took the wrong side of the road and collided with a Mercedes Bens minibus killing its 10 passengers and the driver. The Hyundai bus with at least 24 people inside turned over injuring 7 people, including three children aged under 6.
