
Working meeting of Alexander Bastrykin and Chairman of Armenia's Investigative Committee

A working meeting between Chairman of the Russia's Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin and Chairman of the Armenia's Investigative Committee Agvan Ovsepyan and Vice-Chairman of Armenia's Investigative Committee – Head of the Major Investigations Directorate Vaagn Arutyunyan was held today.

During the meeting they discussed consolidation of bilateral cooperation, raising efficiency of mutual legal assistance with the cases investigated in the Russia's Investigative Committee and Armenia's Investigative Committee.

The meeting was held in friendly and constructive environment. The parties reached agreement on further development of partnership in criminal legal proceedings.

Head of Media Relations V.I. Markin

23 September 2015

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/970571>