The woman was on the list in Voronezh Region Clinical Drug Addiction Hospital with a diagnosis: opium addiction, has been arrested several times

In May 2014, a court found her guilty of a crime under part 2 of article 228 of the RF Penal Code, she received a suspended sentence of 2 years in prison with 1.5 year of probation. In July 2015, a court in absentia ruled to deprive her of her children's custody.

The officials of the children's neglect prevention bodies and facilities of Zheleznodorozhny district and Voronezh Office of the Russia's Ministry of the Interior had failed to take enough measures to confiscate the children from the family in socially dangerous position for their life and health, allowing their mother to lead an asocial lifestyle and neglect her children leaving their development and education uncontrolled and disregarded.

They are questioning witnesses and a set of necessary inquiries have been assigned. The investigation is ongoing.
