
Searches underway in investigation against manager of Dagestan office of Russian Pension Fund

The Main Investigations Directorate of the Russia's Investigative Committee is investigating a case over murders of the head of the operation gas service for Kizlyar Region of OOO Dagestangazservis, deputy head of Anti-Extremism Center of the Dagestani Minister of the Interior committed in 2010, attempted murder of deputy head of Kizlyar administration and over financing terrorism (parts 1 and 2, of article 205.1, parts 3 and 5 of article 33, article 317, parts 3 and 5 of article 33, part 1 of article 105 of the RF Penal Code).

The persons under investigation are the deputy of the Dagestani People's Assembly, manager of the Dagestan office of the Russian Pension Fund Sagid Murtazaliye, Head of Kizlyar District Andrey Vinogradov and Omar Asadulayev.

Today investigators in cooperation with operatives are searching the Dagestan Office of the Russian Pension Fund in the city of Makhachkala and residences of some of the employees of that office in order to get information relevant for the investigation.

Following a request of investigators a court ruled in absentia to remand Murtazaliyev in custody pending trial. He is charged with assisting terrorist activity using his position (financing terrorism); organization of an attempt on the life of the deputy head of Anti-Extremism Center of the Dagestani Minister of the Interior; organization of the attempted murder of deputy head of Kizlyar administration.

In addition, Andrey Vinogradov was arrested following the request of investigator. Murtazaliyev and Asadulayev are hiding abroad, so they are wanted across the world.

Head of Media Relations V.I. Markin

22 October 2015

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/982515>